

Caitlin Carter joined Patterson Intellectual Property Law as litigation paralegal in 2019. Prior to joining the Firm, Caitlin was a licensing and contracts coordinator with CareSpot / MedPost Urgent Care's corporate office.

Before moving to Nashville, Caitlin served in the United States Air Force for eight years. During that time she worked as a military justice paralegal, general/civil law paralegal, defense paralegal, and military justice section supervisor. She has an Associate Degree from Community College of the Air Force where she majored in Paralegal Studies.